

CRIMINAL CASE IS DISMISSED

Indictment Against R. T. VanValkenburg Will Not be Tried Because of Lack of Evidence.

DIVORCE MATTERS HEARD

Blacksmith Supply House Sues the Wrong O'Neil and Granted Permission to Change.

The criminal charge of unlawful sale of a patent right against R. T. VanValkenburg was dismissed in circuit court today on motion of Prosecutor Stevens because of a lack of evidence. VanValkenburg was indicted by a grand jury some months ago. It was alleged that he sold a patent right to Fred Hilligoss without first having on file in the clerk's office certain papers necessary under the state law regarding patents.

Hilligoss has a civil suit pending against VanValkenburg, charging that he was damaged in buying the patent right. The patent was for a gate. The prosecutor told the court there was not enough evidence to warrant the trial of the case and the criminal charge was dismissed.

The court modified the divorce decree granted to Pearl Short from Orbie Short, ordering Short to pay her the sum of $12.50 a month for the support of their child. When the original decree was granted there was no provision made for any support money. The finding today was made by agreement; and the costs were assessed against the defendant.

Thomas E. Davidson of Greensburg was appointed special judge to hear the case of Leonidas Keisling against Thomas Bottorff and the Enterprising Milling Company of Milroy. The suit is for money had and received, the demand being $10,000. Davidson's appointment was made by agreement of attorneys in the case. The case is scheduled to be tried on February 12, 1917.

After a hearing on a petition for an allowance, Neta Vannatta was allowed the sum of $3.50 a week support money and the sum of $10 for attorneys fees pending the outcome of her divorce suit against Carl Vannatta.

The attorneys for the Mossman, Yarnell and Company, a blacksmith supply house, sued the wrong party in bringing the action against Edward O'Neil. The court granted the petition filed today to make Earl O'Neil a party defendant and when this was granted, dismissed the action as to Edward O'Neil. The suit is on an account.

MERCURY MAY MOVE UP A BIT

County Weather Observer Sees Indications of Warmer Weather When Barometer Rises

Morning Mail Train From West is Running on "Winter Schedule"—Trouble With Gas

Although last night was not so cold as the night previous, it was plenty cold enough because the mercury dropped to five degrees below zero some time during the night, according to word from Elwood Kirkwood, county weather observer for the United States department of agriculture.

The low record for the winter was established early yesterday morning when the temperature dropped to twelve below zero. Although the weather did not seem to be growing warmer very fast here this morning, the government thermometer registered six degrees above zero at nine o'clock, a rise of eleven degrees in six or seven hours.

Mr. Kirkwood foresaw today signs of the disappearance of the extreme weather conditions that have prevailed in Rush county for a week. When the blizzard reached this territory the first of the week the government barometer began to go down, indicating the approach of a storm and had been going down ever since until this morning when a slight rise was reported, which Mr. Kirkwood says indicates the coming of warmer weather.

Thermometers in Rushville registered temperatures below zero during the night, but none dropped as low as the government thermometer. This morning the mercury began to rise slowly.

During the cold weather some householders have been experiencing trouble with the gas, but the difficulty has not been general. A few reported today that the gas had gone out completely at their homes. This worked a greater hardship than usual because many more people are depending on gas for heating purposes than usual as hard coal is not available and soft coal is so high in price.

The C. I. & W. morning mail train is running on its "winter schedule" once more, greatly hindering the mail service of Rush county and causing great inconveniences. The train from the west, which is due here about 5:40 o'clock did not arrive until nearly twelve o'clock this morning and yesterday morning it was near nine o'clock when the train reached Rushville.

Probably the greatest inconvenience is suffered by farmers who do not get their mail on the day it arrives when the morning eastbound train is late. The rural mail carriers do not wait on the morning mail when it is delayed like it was yesterday and today. The result is that farmers do not receive their morning papers and other important mail from the west, which usually arrives on that train, until the next morning. The same inconvenience is caused farmers who receive their mail on Glenwood rural routes because the early east bound train drops a mail sack at Glenwood.

It is not quite clear what causes the delay, but it always happens in extremely cold weather, which must be the reason.

MRS. JOHN SMITH EXPIRES AT OGDEN

Former Rush County Woman Dies of Dropsy Today After Three Years of Sickness

LEAVES RELATIVES HERE

Mrs. John Smith died at her home in Ogden this morning at 7 o'clock. She had been suffering from dropsy for about three years. For several years, until nine years ago, Mrs. Smith made her home about 4 miles north of the city and since that time had visited relatives here frequently. She is very well known here.

Relatives in this city that survive are her brothers, John T. Kirkpatrick and James K. Kirkpatrick. At the time of her death, two sisters from Muncie were at her bedside, Mrs. Harvey Newhouse and Mrs. Minerva McKinney. The funeral arrangements have not been completed but will be conducted at Blue River.

FOURTEEN NAMES ARE TAKEN TODAY

Good Fellows Doing Better and More Are Expected to be Recruited by Next Monday

ALSO $2 IS CONTRIBUTED

Fourteen names were removed from the Good Fellows League list today and two dollars added to the treasury, which is a better day's showing than has been made for some time. The available number was today reduced to one hundred and forty-nine, which does not take into consideration the $26 in cash which the League has in the treasury.

The Odd Fellows took an additional eight names today, thus bringing the total number they will make happy Christmas up to fourteen. Another who will be known only as a Good Fellow removed the names of six children from the list and will see that next Monday is a happy day for them. A Good Fellow whose name is not known sent a dollar through the mail and Churchill Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Allen, and Theodore Abercrombie, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Abercrombie, helped swell the fund by contributing fifty cents each.

It is expected that the League will be able to show a big reduction Monday because a number of Sunday school classes will determine tomorrow how many children they will care for at Christmas.

READY TO GIVE A FULL STATEMENT

Germany Will Explain Her Peace Proposals to Allies if Desired, Ambassador Says Today

TO DISCUSS OTHER ISSUES

By ROBER J. BENDER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
Washington, Dec. 16.—Germany is ready to give the allies a full statement of peace terms at a conference, German Ambassador Von Bernstorff officially announced following a brief conference with Secretary of State Lansing today.

At the same time Germany is also ready to discuss disarmament, creation of a league to guarantee permanent peace and other subjects that would arise from peace negotiations.

The ambassador's visit was to obtain official confirmation of this country's intention not to supplement Germany's peace proposals at this time.

The British embassy has advised the foreign office not to return a flat refusal to the German peace proposal for the sake of neutral opinion, it was learned today. It is believed the French and Russian embassies have taken the same action.

OPEN SALE AT THE POSTOFFICE

Psi Iota Xi Girls Will be Stationed There From Now Until Christmas Selling Seals

CAMPAIGN THUS FAR SUCCESS

Sum of $89 is Received Through Mail For Stickers Sent Out—Rushville Hopes to Lead

Today the sale of Red Cross seals began in the postoffice, which marks the working out of one of the last plans made by the members of the Psi Iota Xi sorority who have the sale of Red Cross seals for this city in charge. Judging from former years, the proceeds of this stand in the postoffice will add materially to the seal fund.

During this last week, the girls are hoping to close with a flourish the most strenuous campaign ever made for the sale of the little stickers. The principal reason for this added enthusiasm is that 75% of the proceeds stays here in Rushville, going directly to the visiting nurse fund. The other 25% goes to the state and national headquarters.

Each of the schools has been visited and although the sales netted only about $2, the many pennies making this sum showed the interest and spirit of co-operation of the school children in the cause from which they are bound to derive a benefit.

No phase of the sale has given such encouragement to the sorority girls as shown the readiness with which the people of Rushville will voluntarily respond to a worthy cause as the responses to the letters sent out enclosing one hundred stamps and asking for one dollar in return. Out of one hundred and twenty of these letters sent out, $89 has been realized and more money is still coming in. Several of the answers even enclosed more than the sum asked for. The visiting nurse is also co-operating in gathering this money and selling the seals. Too, all the drug stores have the seals on sale.

Rivalry has been exhibited this year more than in the past. The fact that Rushville has practically always led in this district, or been near the top in the final count of the proceeds, has encouraged the surrounding towns of its size as well as those who have charge of the sale.

The following list has been made out for the girls to stay in the postoffice and conduct the sale of seals. The sorority girls are asked to observe it carefully:

Saturday afternoon—Nora Arbuckle and Belma Clark.

Monday afternoon—Hannah Morris and Beatrice Reeves.

Tuesday afternoon—Frances Neutzelhelzer and Frances Frazee.

Wednesday morning—Nora Arbuckle and Lucile Linn.

Wednesday afternoon—Harriet Vredenburg and Inez Stager.

Thursday morning—Gladys Bebout and Beatrice Reeves.

Thursday afternoon—Alma, Green, Erema Wilk and Lucile Linn.

Friday morning—Norma Smith and Beatrice Reeves.

VOTERS AGAIN STORM POLLS

Election This Time, However, Passes off Without any Parades or Flow of Oratory.

LIKE CALM AFTER STORM

Law Limits Number of Supervisors to Four to a Township—Trustees in Charge.

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 16.—With the memories of the election of Nov. 7, still fresh in their minds, Indiana voters went to the polls again today—this time to choose road supervisors for the 1,016 townships in state.

The election was sort of a calm after the storm, unattended or glittering parades or a fluent flow of oratory.

The number of road supervisors in any township is limited to four by the law passed by the legislature in 1915. A supervisor is paid 25 cents an hour for his work and is not allowed to work more than fifty days each year except in townships where there is only one supervisor. In such cases he is limited to 120 days.

The polls opened at 2 o'clock this afternoon and close at 5 o'clock except in such places where the entire vote is cast before 5 o'clock or at polls where ample opportunity has been given voters to cast their ballots and ten minutes have passed without a ballot being cast, when the polls may be closed. The township trustees acted as election inspectors. They appointed two clerks, who with the trustee, comprised the election board.

An exceedingly light vote was expected to be cast in the election of road supervisors in Rush county this afternoon. Two things were responsible. A lack of interest and the cold weather combined to keep the voters away from the polls. The interest in the election was not strong and only where there were contests did the voters indicate a desire to go to the polls.

Each township in the county has four road districts and a supervisor was to be elected in every one of these. In a majority of the districts the present supervisors were expected to be re-elected. Many farmers were in the city today doing their shopping and for this reason they did not go to the polls. The polls were open from two o'clock until five o'clock. The results of the election are expected to be known by Monday, as it should not be a difficult matter to count the votes.

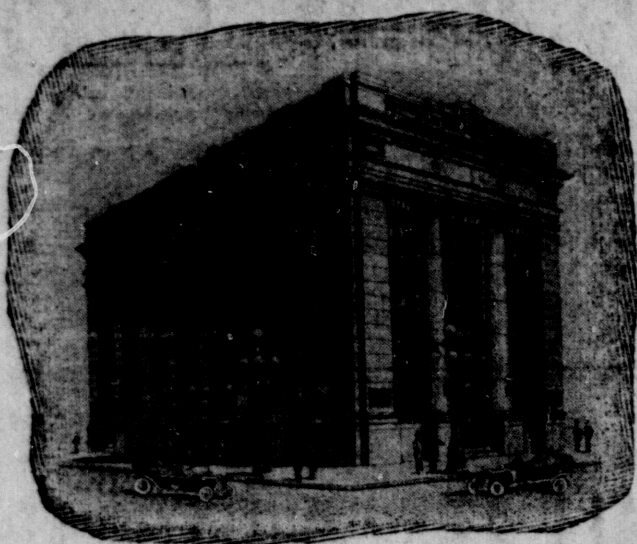

ENGINEER DIES IN WRECK

A. B. Miller Killed When Rails Spread Under Engine.

(By United Press.)
Attica, Ind., Dec. 16.—A. B. Miller, an engineer of Brazil, Ind., was killed and three other trainmen injured when rails spread derailing a Chicago and Eastern Illinois train two miles south of here today. The engine was running backwards pulling some cars when the rails spread. The engineer was buried beneath the wreckage.

Pleasant A. Miller Jr., accompanied by his grandfather, P. A. Miller, who went to Chicago to meet him, arrived this morning from Los Angeles, Cal., for an extended visit with his relatives here. He made the trip from Los Angeles to Chicago alone which is quite remarkable for a youngster of 7 years. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Miller formerly of this city.

OBITUARY

The death angel has visited us and claimed our dear friend and neighbor, James Hardwick, son of James and Lydia Hardwick, was born July 27th, 1851, in Orange township, Rush County, Indiana. Early in life when eighteen (18) years of age he made the good confession and united with the Big Flatrock Christian church and remained a faithful member. He enjoyed, and was often leader of the weekly prayer meetings held, in his early life. He was also secretary of the Sunday school and enjoyed singing and helping in many different ways as long as his health permitted. On November 25th 1880 he was married to Miss Sarah Waggoner. To this union two children were born; a son who died in infancy and a daughter, Lorena, who in the bloom of youth was called by death. His last days were filled with confidence and thanksgiving. He enjoyed the prayers of his friends and offered many. When nearing the close, he could almost see through the mist into the great beyond. He entreated his friends to be more faithful and prayerful. He made a valiant fight and lost in the conflict. On December 1st, 1916, his spirit took its upward flight, aged 65 years, 4 months and 4 days. He leaves a wife, three brothers, John of Rushville, George of California, Eli of New Salem, one half-brother, Cyrus Morgan and two half-sisters Mrs. Ann Willey and Mrs. Alfred Dillon to mourn the loss of a loving husband, a dear brother and a large number of other relatives and neighbors who feel they have lost a kind friend and good neighbor, the church one of its faithful members.

College Students Will Flock Home for Christmas Holidays

"Home" is the Mecca for every one at Christmas time, but no one anticipates these short holidays back home with the folks more than do the college students. Even those who have not suffered from the familiar pangs of home-sickness appreciate the reunion and all the good times that it brings. Practically every day next week will bring in a flock of students, from near and far.

Oxford college at Oxford, Ohio is out Tuesday and on that day, Miss Phyllis Dean and Miss Marian Tittsworth will return for the holidays. On Wednesday, the Purdue students will return. They include Lucien Anderson, Simeon Stewart, Forrest Jones, Howard Brecheisen and Howard Miller of Milroy. Miss Alleine Budd, who has been attending Northwestern university at Evanston, Ill., will arrive Wednesday and so will Miss Jean McClanahan, who has been in Peabody Conservatory of Music in Baltimore, Md.

The Depauw students have chosen both Thursday and Friday for returning. The students at Depauw from here this year are the Misses Ramona Ewbank, Marian Scholl, and Marian Sparks and Wallace

Payne and Edwin Watson. Miss Gladys Tittsworth and Ben Cox who are attending Chicago university will also arrive home one of these two days. Russel Skipton comes from Columbus, O., where he is in state university, on Thursday.

The Indiana university students, and there are quite a few of them, will come Friday. This crowd includes the Misses Marian McMillin, Freda Hiner, Ruth Innis, Lucile Gray, Marguerite Wolcott, and Vernal Casady and Russel Kirkpatrick. Stanton McBride is in Medical school at Indiana university. On Friday, too Miss Dorothy Frazee will return from Western college in Oxford, Ohio, where she is studying. Miss Dorothy Wright will arrive Friday from Indianapolis where she is in Miss Blaker's school. Ralph Hackleman and Harold Bever who are in Wabash college at Crawfordsville and Laurence Payne who is in Military school at Asheville, N. C., will arrive the latter part of the week.

Kennard Allen who is in Columbia university in New York, having only a week's vacation, will spend the time with friends near there and Harold McClanahan, in Northwest

PETTICOATS OF SHIMMERING FABRICS ARE REGULAR DREAMS

In the Bygone Days of Old Kings They Thought They Were Going Some When They Donned Suits of Gold and Silver Armour, But Fashion's Queens Have Gone a Few Steps Further Today When They Affect Lingerie D'Or and D'Argent — Entire Gowns For Evening Wear of These Metalized Fabrics Are as Beautiful as They Are Popular.

By MARGARET MASON

(Written for United Press.)

All that glitters is not gold

Of 'tis silver too

And each maid is metalized Hat, gown and shoe.

New York, Dec. 16.—Clouds aren't the only things that have silver linings these days. No indeed not if you have noticed the shiny new lingerie. Made of cloth of gold and cloth of silver it is and if you own an under bodice or a combination of this precious sheen you can feel positively that you are up to the last scratch of Fashion. And you probably do too. Petticoats of these shimmering fabrics are dreams of moonbeams and sunbeams elaborately incrustated with gold and silver lace as well. In days of old Kings thought there were going some when they donned suits of gold and silver armour but fashion's queens have certainly gone a few steps further today when they affect lingerie d'or and d'argent.

Entire gowns for evening wear of these precious metalized fabrics are as beautiful as they are popular and Mary Nash in "The Man Who Came Back" is showing a stunning example of a silver cloth one inset with silver lace.

Cloth of gold and cloth of silver slippers have of course become almost too common for words and are bound soon to be only worn by the poor and passe considering the constantly soaring price of calf skin.

Hats, large and cartwheelish, of gold and silver lace are much in evidence on heads that show also a suspiciously copper glint. For you really have to be on your metal these days and have the metal on you even if it means resorting to the help of henna.

Boudoir caps of gold and silver lace and gold and silver tissue also prove that not only plumbing, radiators, munitions and machines may boast metal caps.

Alas, however, they don't act quite the same way and a tired and temperamental lady may never hope to let off steam simply by doffing her boudoir cap of gold.

All gold and silver cloth evening wraps with cape collars and cuffs of fur are gorgeous enough to make King Henry the Eighth and his famous Field of the Cloth of Gold look like a piker.

Fairy fans of gold and silver gauze and silver cobweb lace flutter and twinkle under the artificial lights like so many silvery dew drops or golden fireflies.

One particularly bright, shining and novel fan I discovered in an artistic new shop the other day. It is of humble paper origin but all beautifully covered with gold leaf, sticks and all. A Chinese hieroglyphic done in a bright blue, green and purple breaks the monotony of its folds and dangling from its sticks is a silken cord of matching color gay with beads and finished with a festive Chinese tassel or a handy finger ring of jade where-with to anchor its fluttering beauty ready to its fair owners hand.

The new oriental Medieval and Byzantine tea gowns and negligees that now have such a royal vogue are of course replete with gold and silver tissues, laces and galloons.

Because of these present precious fabrics, these many metalized modes, divers are the poor swains who go questing the golden girl a la Richard Le Gallienne who are bound to be stung. They will find seeming golden girls on ever hand and silver queens as well. But let them beware and remember that a gold wash and a silver plate has a time limit of wear. In the majority of cases the twenty two carat finish is only gown and lingerie deep, the golden or the copper tress has a henna or peroxide base and base deceit it is. Let the wary wooer be not dazzled by the outer shell but let him first test his precious pet in the crucible of love and find if her heart be of gold as well and if she has a sterling character

Many Events Make Christmas Most Festive Season of Year

Christmas vacation is hardly to be a vacation in one sense of the word, if by it you mean what Webster does, "a period of leisure," for every crowd and click is busy already planning for the annual Christmas party and finding a date for it, which now is a difficult task indeed. The college folks and home-comers, that make this one time of the year more pleasant by being here, have added a stimulus to the plans for dances, parties, banquets, in fact, everything that will give an excuse for a pleasant "get together." All of the plans are not definite, but at that they promise a good time.

Only a few of the crowds will brave the Christmas rush of those last few days for a party. The members of the Tri Kappa sorority will have their holiday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Harold in North Perkins street on Thursday evening preceding Christmas. Following the pitch-in supper, to be given by one division of the sorority, there will be an exchange of gifts. On Thursday evening too, the Pollyanna class of the St. Paul's M. E. Sunday School will have a pitch-in supper. Each member of the class will invite one friend to participate in the party.

Christmas day itself of course has a larger line than ever of family dinners. Too, there will be an all day dance at the Phi Delta Kappa hall, with a six piece orchestra from Connorsville playing both afternoon and evening. The members of the Cross Country Club are planning to observe their annual custom with a pitch-in dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Osear Newhouse Christmas evening.

Some time during the week and probably Tuesday, the members of the "500" Club will have their Christmas party with an exchange of gifts at their regular meeting. Mrs. Walter Easley will have the meeting. On Wednesday evening, will be the formal dance at the Social Club. This Christmas dance will be similar to the Thanksgiving one which was such a marked success. An Indianapolis orchestra is to play.

The members of the Psi Iota Xi sorority had planned to have their anniversary banquet on Thursday evening. The event will mark the anniversary of the founding of the chapter. On Thursday, too, one of the most auspicious events in the history of Kappa Alpha Phi will be staged in the Riley room at the Claypool Hotel in Indianapolis in the form of a dance for the entire membership of the fraternity. A number of the local Kappas and their lady friends will go from here.

On Friday evening, the members of the R. C. S. Club will have their annual Christmas party.

The same evening, Miss Gladys Bebout and Miss Beatrice Reeves will give a dinner party at the home of Miss Reeves in North Main street for a number of their girl friends including several that will return from school.

Tuesday evening, the house-guests of Miss Leah Flint will be guests of honor at the dinner party to be given by Miss Flint at her home in North Perkins street for a number of her boy and girl friends.

No Christmas Is Complete Without Some of the Old-Fashioned Candy

No matter how many new fashioned and elaborate boxes of candy one receives at Christmas, the day just isn't complete without some of the home-made candy. Several kinds can be made in advance of these last few days of rushing. Fondant is really better to be made several days or a week ahead. It can be made into the fancy little molds and mixed with nuts and fruits later. Some of the most popular candies and those which are not complicated to make follow:

Pineapple Divinity Fudge.

- 2 cupsful sugar.
- 1/2 cupful corn syrup.
- 1/2 cupful water.
- 2 eggs.
- 1/2 teaspoonful cream of tartar.
- 1/2 cupful candied pineapple.
- 1/2 cupful nut meats.

Put all the ingredients into a saucepan except the pineapple, nuts and eggs, and boil to the firm ball stage or to 250 degrees by the candy thermometer. Add the vanilla or any desired extract and pour over the beaten whites of the eggs. Beat until it begins to stiffen, stir in the pineapple and nuts chopped very fine. Pour into pans and cut into squares.

Maple Marshmallow Foam.

- 2 cupsful maple sugar.
- 1 cupful brown sugar.
- 1 teaspoonful cream of tartar.
- 1 dozen marshmallows.
- 1/2 cupful of water.
- 1/3 cupful shelled walnuts.
- 2 eggs.

"Foam" candies are popular and this one is no exception. Boil sugars, water and cream of tartar until the mixture will make a firm ball when tested in water, then add the marshmallows, cut into small pieces. Cover and let stand on the back of the stove for five minutes. Pour over the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs. Beat until light, drop from a spoon onto a buttered paper and place a half walnut on top of each.

Fruit and Nut Loaf.

Soften one pound of fondant, and work in one-fourth pound figs, one-fourth cupful of raisins, one-fourth cupful candied cherries, one slice of candied pineapple—all cut in small pieces—and one-half cupful chopped nuts. Place in oblong pan. When cold and firm, cut in small pieces.

Sea Foam With Nuts

Boil one cupful sugar and one-half cupful water until it threads. Beat whites of two egg very stiff. Put in dry pan and add boiled mixture very slowly, beating well with paddle or spoon until ingredients become stiff. Add one-half cupful broken English walnuts, then drop in little mounds on waxed paper.

Pop Corn Fudge.

- 2 cupsful sugar.
- 2 tablespoonsful butter.
- 1 cupful popcorn.
- 1/2 cupful peanuts.
- 1 cupful milk.
- 1/2 teaspoonful salt.
- 1/2 teaspoonful almond extract.

Boil the sugar, milk, butter and salt to the soft ball stage. Flavor with the almond extract. Stir in the popcorn and nuts that have been run through a food chopper or chopped fine. Stir until creamy, and when cool cut into squares.

Old Fashioned Taffy.

- 1 cupful sugar.
- 1/2 cupful butter.
- 1/3 cupful brown sugar.
- 1 cupful molasses.
- 1 cupful milk.
- 1 tablespoon vanilla.
- Pinch of salt.
- 1 teaspoonful vinegar.

A favorite addition to the many Christmas sweets is taffy. Mix the sugar, salt, butter and milk and molasses; boil until mixture will form a hard ball when tested in cold water. Add the vanilla and vinegar, pour into pan and mark into squares.

Maple Delight.

- 1 cupful maple sugar.
- 1 cupful light brown sugar.
- 1/2 cupful corn syrup.
- 1 teaspoonful vanilla.
- 1/2 cupful water.
- 1/2 cupful chopped raisins.
- 1/2 cupful walnut meats.
- 2 eggs.
- 1 teaspoon cream of tartar.

Maple sugar furnishes the "different" note. Place the sugars, water, syrup and cream of tartar in a saucepan and boil for a few minutes. Add the raisins chopped fine, and the chopped nut meats. Boil until it will ball in water, flavor with vanilla, and pour over the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs. Beat light and foamy, then drop from a spoon onto wax paper, and place a raisin on the top of each. They are also nice dipped in melted chocolate when cool.

ern Music School at Evanston, may stop off on his way to Galveston, Texas, where he will visit during the holidays.

Robert Helm returns from Miami university at Oxford on Thursday. The Earlham students return on Friday. They include Helen Norris, Russel Tittsworth, and Donald Winslow. Cullen Sexton who is attending Cincinnati university will return the latter part of the week to spend vacation, and so will James E. Watson, who is attending Military School in West Virginia.

Monday Circle, luncheon and lecture by Mrs. Demarchus. Brown at home of Mrs. James E. Watson at 805 North Main street.

Busy Bunch pitch-in supper, with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stewart at 1131 North Main street.

Even though they have just moved into their new home west of Arlington and yesterday was Mrs. Woods birthday, it was quite a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Reeves Woods last evening when a number of their friends came in upon them bringing their supper as a part of the complete surprise on the young couple. An elegant supper was served, following which the guests had several rounds of Rook. In the party arranging this delightful affair were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Leisure, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morelock, M. and Mrs. James Alsmann, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Alsmann, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Woods, Miss Mary Woods, all of Arlington and Walter E. Smith of this city. Mrs. Woods was formerly Miss Mary Smith of this city.

Victory and defeat were forgotten last evening, when following the basketball game Miss Kate Dennis, head of the domestic science department, and the domestic science class gave a rabbit supper for the Rushville and Milroy teams. The affair was in the nature of a surprise, to return somewhat the courtesy extended the local team which was honored with an oyster supper following the basketball game at Milroy several weeks ago.

For the affair, one of the class rooms was arranged in a very home-like fashion with rugs, decorations and furniture. The five tables were decorated with Christmas trees, over which was a canopy of red and black crepe paper, the high school colors, extending from the chandeliers to the corners of the room. Along with the rabbit were a number of other dishes making an elegant supper for the players. The meal was prettily served by the girls in the department. "Cabaret"

A "Help-Your-Neighbor" Lady.

Of course you know her! Everybody knows Rose Tapley—and consequently everybody loves Rose Tapley. You couldn't do the one thing without doing the other. Somehow she demands that you love her. At any rate you wouldn't be a movie girl if you failed.

Of all the unselfish people in the world there never was anybody more so than Miss Tapley. Ever ready with a helping hand she makes her dressingroom the favorite refuge of every discouraged person about the studios. It is a haven from the hurly-burly.

And let me whisper something to you—not only is she a delightful screen personage, but she is a decidedly clever writer as well. Her writings, however, are always about someone else. Never herself.

Her creed reads something like this:—

"Never refuse a helping hand. Join the Help-Your-Neighbor Band. You'll never regret any kindness you do.

Strive that your life every day may be true."

Representing the Vitagraph Company at exhibitions, socials and dinners, as well as playing numerous roles in the pictures, Miss Tapley has won scores of friends for herself, and her name outside the theatre assures the exhibitors a "full house."

An unlimited supply of tact and diplomacy is hard to master. But never does she fail to carry over a strained situation, and her advice has helped hundreds of girls find happiness in their own lives instead of a doubtful career on the screen.

Although yet a young woman, Miss Tapley, which names she clings to in her screen career, is an ideal mother to her younger friends. Perhaps this is because she is the real mother of a lovely little girl, Rosemary.

For weeks Miss Tapley reported for work at the studios under the care of a trained nurse. Wasn't that plucky of her? When she should really have been away in the mountains taking a rest on account of the condition of her nerves she insisted upon continuing with her duties. That, perhaps, tells you her stamp better than most things could. So when you see her on the screen remember that she is every bit as charming in real life as she appears in the play.

music was furnished by the ukelele chorus consisting of Wilbur Cox, William Sexton, Dwight VanOsdel, Harry Schmalzel, and Ed Meredith, the latter playing the mandolin. To their accompaniment songs were sung by Miss Louise Poe, Miss Mary Louise Bliss and Miss Kathryn Guffin. One number was played and sung by Harry Schmalzel, accompanied by C. E. Parks.

The thirty-one guests included the first and second teams of Milroy, the first and second teams of Rushville, and the coaches and referees.

"THE WHOLE TRUTH"

Says Mrs. Eads, in Writing Her Praise For Cardui.

Circleville, Ohio.—"All I have said about Cardui, the woman's tonic, is the whole truth," says Mrs. Fannie Eads, of R. F. D. No. 6, this town.

"I suffered with womanly weakness, and pains in my back and limbs for two long years. I was so bad off, I could hardly walk at all.

My husband advised me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I concluded to follow his advice. After taking Cardui according to directions, I now feel like a new woman, and can do all of my work.

Before taking Cardui, I was a walking skeleton; now I weigh 150 pounds. I recommend Cardui to every suffering woman, for I know what it did for me. My dresser is never without a bottle of Cardui on it."

There is no reason why Cardui won't help you, just as it has Mrs. Eads, as well as hundreds of thousands of other women in the past 50 years. So if you suffer from any of the many ailments so common to women, or need a good strengthening tonic for that tired, nervous, worn-out feeling, get a bottle of Cardui, today. At all druggists. NCB1

Christmas Shopping is at Its Height at Mauzy's

Walk back and forth through our spacious aisles on all three floors and see the many, many attractive offerings in the way of suggestions for your Christmas giving. Qualities are uniformly good and the assortments are so extensive as to preclude any doubt of your being able to make wise selections. For men, women or children there is a wonderful variety of gift things, and it will be worth your while to spend many hours here.

Ravenware

The new black glass is here in a variety of shapes for different uses. Especially attractive are the Japanese gardens for the center of the dining table.

Fountain Pens

We feature the Moore's Non-Leakable for men, women and children. They are superior to many pens on the market. Some are self-fillers.

The Gift Shop

This is to be found just as you enter the store. So many beautiful gifts are here in silver, glass, brass, leather, nickel, copper and fancy woods. If you wish something different visit this shop.

Linens

Mauzy's linens are famous through this section. Splendid in texture, exquisite in patterns, and moderate in price, they will make excellent gifts. Cloths and napkins to match for both round and square table; luncheon sets; beautiful towels.

Furs

No gift would be more appreciated. We are showing many beautiful matched sets, and separate muffs and scarfs. Annis furs have no peers.

French Ivory

These "easy to keep clean" toilet articles are here in hundreds of different shapes. We know of nothing that is more acceptable to the young miss or the mature matron.

Boudoir Slippers

Pretty shades are combined in these slippers to match the bath robes which we are showing. Many different styles. House slippers for men and children, too.

Sweaters

Good to look at, snug and warm, thoroughly practical, they make splendid gifts. We have them for women, girls and babies.

Silk Hose

Gordon Hose are again one of the best attractions this Christmas. In spite of the shortage, we have a good line of colors.

Knit Sets

These consist of scarf and cap for both ladies and girls in beautiful shades of rose, kelly green and open. Tiger plush sets at $1.00 and $2.00.

Rugs

A small Wilton Rug in some of the new Oriental shadings can not but please the wife, if the husband will do the choosing. The assortment is very large.

Toys

Toyland is aglow with everything that appeals to virile boys and girls. Spend an hour in this section.

CRIMINAL CASE IS DISMISSED

Indictment Against R. T. VanValkenburg Will Not be Tried Because of Lack of Evidence.

DIVORCE MATTERS HEARD

Blacksmith Supply House Sues the Wrong O'Neil and Granted Permission to Change.

The criminal charge of unlawful sale of a patent right against R. T.
VanValkenburg was dismissed in circuit court today on motion of Prosecutor Stevens because of a lack of evidence. VanValkenburg was indicted by a grand jury some months ago. It was alleged that he sold a patent right to Fred Hillgoss without first having on file in the clerk's office certain papers necessary under the state law regarding patents.

Hillgoss has a civil suit pending against VanValkenburg, charging that he was damaged in buying the patent right. The patent was for a gate. The prosecutor told the court there was not enough evidence to warrant the trial of the case and the criminal charge was dismissed.

The court modified the divorce decree granted to Pearl Short from Orbie Short, ordering Short to pay her the sum of $12.50 a month for the support of their child. When the original decree was granted there was no provision made for any support money. The finding today was made by agreement; and the costs
were assessed against the defendant.

Thomas E. Davidson of Greensburg was appointed special judge to hear the case of Leonidas Keisling against Thomas Bottorff and the Enterprising Milling Company of Milroy. The suit is for money had and received,
the demand being $10,000. Davidson's appointment was made by agreement of attorneys in the case.
The case is scheduled to be tried on February 12, 1917.

After a hearing on a petition for an allowance, Neta Vannatta was allowed the sum of $3.50 a week support money and the sum of $10 for attorneys fees pending the outcome of her divorce suit against Carl Vanatta.

The attorneys for the Mossman, Yarnell and Company, a blacksmith supply house, sued the wrong party
in bringing the action against Edward O'Neil. The court granted the petition filed today to make Earl O'Neil
a party defendant and when this was granted, dismissed the action as to Edward O'Neil. The suit is on an account.

MERCURY MAY MOVE UP A BIT

County Weather Observer Sees Indications of Warmer Weather
When Barometer Rises

Morning Mail Train From West is Running on "Winter Schedule"
—Trouble With Gas

Although last night was not so cold as the night previous, it was plenty cold enough because the mercury dropped to five degrees below zero some time during the night,
according to word from Elwood Kirkwood, county weather observer
for the United States department of agriculture.

The low record for the winter was established early yesterday morning
when the temperature dropped to twelve below zero. Although the weather did not seem to be growing warmer very fast here this morning,
the government thermometer registered six degrees above zero at nine o'clock, a rise of eleven degrees in six or seven hours.

Mr. Kirkwood foresaw today signs of the disappearance of the extreme weather conditions that have prevailed in Rush county for a week. When the blizzard reached this territory the first of the week,
the government barometer began to go down, indicating the approach of a storm and had been going down ever since until this morning when a slight rise was reported, which Mr.
Kirkwood says indicates the coming of warmer weather.

Thermometers in Rushville registered temperatures below zero during the night, but none dropped as low as the government thermometer.
This morning the mercury began to rise slowly.

During the cold weather some householders have been experiencing trouble with the gas, but the difficulty has not been general. A few reported today that the gas had gone out completely at their homes. This worked a greater hardship than usual because many more people are depending on gas for heating purposes than usual as hard coal is not available and soft coal is so high in price.

The C. I. & W. morning mail train is running on its "winter schedule"
once more, greatly hindering the mail service of Rush county and causing great inconveniences. The train from the west, which is due here about 5:40 o'clock did not arrive until nearly twelve o'clock this morning and yesterday morning it was near nine o'clock when the train reached Rushville.

Probably the greatest inconvenience is suffered by farmers who do not get their mail on the day it arrives when the morning eastbound train is late. The rural mail carriers do not wait on the morning mail when it is delayed like it was yesterday and today. The result is that farmers do not receive their morning papers and other important mail from the west, which usually arrives on that train, until the next morning. The same inconvenience is caused farmers who receive their mail on Glenwood rural routes because the early east bound train drops a mail sack at Glenwood.

It is not quite clear what causes
the delay, but it always happens in extremely cold weather, which must be the reason.

tionary factions are now being watched but action is held up pending ratification of the American-Mexican mediation protocol.

MRS. JOHN SMITH EXPIRES AT OGDEN

Former Rush County Woman Dies
of Dropsy Today After Three Years of Sickness

LEAVES RELATIVES HERE

Mrs. John Smith died at her home in Ogden this morning at 7 o'clock. She had been suffering from dropsy for about three years.
For several years, until nine years ago, Mrs. Smith made her home about 4 miles north of the city and since that time had visited relatives here frequently. She is very well known here.

Relatives in this city that survive are her brothers, John T. Kirkpatrick and James K. Kirkpatrick.
At the time of her death, two sisters from Muncie were at her bedside, Mrs. Harvey Newhouse and Mrs. Minerva McKinney. The funeral arrangements have not been completed but will be conducted at Blue River.

FOURTEEN NAMES ARE TAKEN TODAY

Good Fellows Doing Better and More Are Expected to Be Recruited by Next Monday

ALSO $2 IS CONTRIBUTED

Fourteen names were removed from the Good Fellows League list today and two dollars added to the treasury, which is a better day's showing than has been made for some time. The available number was today reduced to one hundred and forty-nine, which does not take into consideration the $26 in cash
which the League has in the treasury.

The Odd Fellows took an additional eight names today, thus bringing the total number they will make happy Christmas up to fourteen. Another who will be known only as a Good Fellow removed the names of six children from the list and will see that next Monday is a happy day for them. A Good Fellow whose name is not known sent a dollar through the mail and Churchill Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L.
Allen, and Theodore Abercrombie,
Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Abercrombie, helped swell the fund by contributing fifty cents each.

It is expected that the League will be able to show a big reduction Monday because a number of Sunday school classes will determine tomorrow how many children they will care for at Christmas.

READY TO GIVE A FULL STATEMENT

Germany Will Explain Her Peace
Proposals to Allies if Desired,
Ambassador Says Today

TO DISCUSS OTHER ISSUES

By ROBER J. BENDER
(U. S. Staff Correspondent.)
Washington, Dec. 16.—Germany is ready to give the allies a full statement of peace terms at a conference, German Ambassador Von Bernstorff officially announced following a brief conference with Secretary of State Lansing today.

At the same time Germany is also ready to discuss disarmament,
creation of a league to guarantee permanent peace and other subjects that would arise from peace negotiations.

The ambassador's visit was to obtain official confirmation of this country's intention not to supplement Germany's peace proposals
at this time.

The British embassy has advised the foreign office not to return a flat refusal to the German peace proposal for the sake of neutral opinion, it was learned today. It is believed the French and Russian embassies have taken the same action.

OPEN SALE AT THE POSTOFFICE

Psi Iota Xi Girls Will be Stationed
There From Now Until Christmas Selling Seals

CAMPAIGN THUS FAR SUCCESS

Sum of $89 is Received Through Mail For Stickers Sent Out—
Rushville Hopes to Lead

Today the sale of Red Cross seals began in the postoffice, which marks the working out of one of the last plans made by the members of the Psi Iota Xi sorority who have the sale of Red Cross seals for this city in charge. Judging from former years, the proceeds of this stand in the postoffice will add materially to the seal fund.

During this last week, the girls are hoping to close with a flourish
the most strenuous campaign ever made for the sale of the little stickers. The principal reason for this added enthusiasm is that 75%
of the proceeds stays here in Rushville, going directly to the visiting nurse fund. The other 25% goes to the state and national headquarters.

Each of the schools has been visited and although the sales netted only about $2, the many pennies making this sum showed the interest and spirit of co-operation of the school children in the cause from which they are bound to derive a benefit.

No phase of the sale has given
such encouragement to the sorority girls as shown the readiness with which the people of Rushville will voluntarily respond to a worthy cause as the responses to the letters sent out enclosing one hundred stamps and asking for one dollar in return. Out of one hundred and twenty of these letters sent out, $89
has been realized and more money is still coming in. Several of the answers even enclosed more than the sum asked for. The visiting nurse is also co-operating in gathering this money and selling the seals. Too, all the drug stores have the seals on sale.

Rivalry has been exhibited this year more than in the past. The fact that Rushville has practically always led in this district, or been near the top in the final count of the proceeds, has encouraged the surrounding towns of its size as well as those who have charge of the sale.

The following list has been made
out for the girls to stay in the postoffice and conduct the sale of seals.
The sorority girls are asked to observe it carefully:

Saturday afternoon—Nora Arbuckle and Belma Clark.

Monday afternoon—Hannah Morris
and Beatrice Reeves.

Tuesday afternoon—Frances Neut-zenheller and Frances Frazee.

Wednesday morning—Nora Arbuckle and Lucile Linn.

Wednesday afternoon—Harriet Vredenburg and Inez Stager.

Thursday morning—Gladys Bebout
and Beatrice Reeves.

Thursday afternoon—Alma, Green,
Erema Wilk and Lucile Linn.

Friday morning—Norma Smith and Beatrice Reeves.

Friday afternoon—Helen Scudder and Frances Frazee.

Saturday morning—Phyllis Dean and Gladys Tittsworth.

Saturday afternoon—Leah Flint and Hannah Morris.

VOTERS AGAIN STORM POLLS

Election This Time, However, Passes off Without any Parades or Flow of Oratory.

LIKE CALM AFTER STORM

Law Limits Number of Supervisors
to Four to a Township—Trustees in Charge.

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 16.—With the memories of the election of Nov.
7, still fresh in their minds, Indiana voters went to the polls again today—this time to choose road supervisors for the 1,016 townships in state.

The election was sort of a calm
after the storm, unattended or glittering parades or a fluent flow of oratory.

The number of road supervisors
in any township is limited to four
by the law passed by the legislature in 1915. A supervisor is paid 25 cents an hour for his work and is not allowed to work more than fifty days each year except in townships
where there is only one supervisor.
In such cases he is limited to 120 days.

The polls opened at 2 o'clock this afternoon and close at 5 o'clock
except in such places where the entire vote is cast before 5 o'clock or at polls where ample opportunity has been given voters to cast their ballots and ten minutes have passed without a ballot being cast, when the polls may be closed. The township trustees acted as election inspectors. They appointed two clerks, who with the trustee, comprised the election board.

An exceedingly light vote was expected to be cast in the election of road supervisors in Rush county this afternoon. Two things were responsible. A lack of interest and the cold weather combined to keep the voters away from the polls. The interest in the election was not strong and only where there were contests did the voters indicate a desire to go to the polls.

Each township in the county has four road districts and a supervisor was to be elected in every one of these. In a majority of the districts
the present supervisors were expected to be re-elected. Many farmers were in the city today doing their shopping and for this reason they did not go to the polls. The polls were open from two o'clock until five o'clock. The results of the election are expected to be known by Monday, as it should not be a difficult matter to count the votes.

ENGINEER DIES IN WRECK

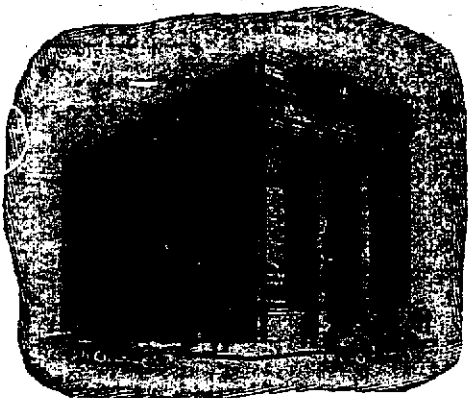

A. B. Miller Killed When Rails
Spread Under Engine.

(By United Press.)

Attica, Ind., Dec. 16.—A. B. Miller, an engineer of Brazil, Ind., was killed and three other trainmen injured when rails spread derailling a Chicago and Eastern Illinois train two miles south of here today. The engine was running backwards pulling some cars when the rails spread. The engineer was buried beneath the wreckage.

—Pleasant A. Miller Jr., accompanied by his grandfather, P. A.
Miller, who went to Chicago to meet him, arrived this morning from Los Angeles, Cal., for an extended visit with his relatives here. He made the trip from Los Angeles to Chicago alone which is quite remarkable for a youngster of 7 years. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Miller formerly of this city.

TO MEET ALLIES DEMAND

Greek Reply Meeting Recent Ultimatum is Made Public Today

(By United Press.)

Athens, Dec. 16.—The Greek reply accepting demands of the allies complies completely with their ultimatum. The reply made public today says Greece desires to give another proof of friendship and announces that orders have already been given complying with the allies demands. The movement of troops and material began today and will be carried out as rapidly as possible.

Satisfaction was promised for the attack made on French forces in Athens and arbitration was suggested for adjustment of details. The reply expressed the hope that the allies will reconsider their blockade decree.

OBITUARY

The death angel has visited us and claimed our dear friend and neighbor, James Hardwick, son of James and Lydia Hardwick, was born July 27th, 1851, in Orange township, Rush County, Indiana. Early in life when eighteen (18) years of age he made the good confession and united with the Big Flatrock Christian church and remained a faithful member. He enjoyed, and was often leader of the weekly prayer meetings held, in his early life. He was also secretary of the Sunday school and enjoyed singing and helping in many different ways as long as his health permitted. On November 25th 1880 he was married to Miss Sarah Waggoner. To this union two children were born; a son who died in infancy and a daughter, Lorena, who in the bloom of youth was called by death. His last days were filled with confidence and thanksgiving. He enjoyed the prayers of his friends and offered many. When nearing the close, he could almost see through the mist into the great beyond. He entreated his friends to be more faithful and prayerful. He made a valiant fight and lost in the conflict. On December 1st, 1916, his spirit took its upward flight, aged 65 years, 4 months and 4 days. He leaves a wife, three brothers, John of Rushville, George of California, Eli of New Salem, one half-brother, Cyrus Morgan and two half-sisters Mrs. Ann Willey and Mrs. Alfred Dillon to mourn the loss of a loving husband, a dear brother and a large number of other relatives and neighbors who feel they have lost a kind friend and good neighbor, the church one of its faithful members. Call not back the dear departed, Anchored safe where storms are o'er. On the border land we left him, Soon to meet and part no more. When we leave this world of changes When we leave this world of care, We shall find our missing loved one In our Father's mansion fair. Peaceful be thy silent slumber Peaceful in thy grave so low Thou no more will join our number Thou no more our sorrows know Farewell dear but not forever There will be a glorious dawn We shall meet to part—no never On the resurrection morn. A FRIEND.

College Students Will Flock Home for Christmas Holidays

"Home" is the Mecca for everyone at Christmas time, but no one anticipates these short holidays back home with the folks more than do the college students. Even those who have not suffered from the familiar pangs of homesickness appreciate the remission and all the good times that it brings. Practically every day next week will bring in a flock of students, from near and far.

Oxford college at Oxford, Ohio is out Tuesday and on that day, Miss Phyllis Dean and Miss Marian Tittsworth will return for the holidays. On Wednesday, the Purdue students will return. They include Lucien Anderson, Simeon Stewart, Forrest Jones, Howard Breechisen and Howard Miller of Milroy. Miss Aline Budd, who has been attending Northwestern university at Evanston, Ill., will arrive Wednesday and so will Miss Jean McClanahan, who has been in Peabody Conservatory of Music in Baltimore, Md.

The Depauw students have chosen both Thursday and Friday for returning. The students at Depauw from here this year are the Misses Ramona Ewbank, Marian Scholl, and Marian Sparks and Wallace

Payne and Edwin Watson. Miss Gladys Tittsworth and Ben Cox who are attending Chicago university will also arrive home one of these two days. Russel Skipton comes from Columbus, O., where he is in state university, on Thursday.

The Indiana university students, and there are quite a few of them, will come Friday. This crowd includes the Misses Marian McMillin, Freda Hiner, Ruth Innis, Lucile Gray, Marguerite Wolcott, and Verne Casady and Russel Kirkpatrick. Stanton McBride is in Medical school at Indiana university. On Friday, too Miss Dorothy Frazee will return from Western college in Oxford, Ohio, where she is studying. Miss Dorothy Wright will arrive Friday from Indianapolis where she is in Miss Blaker's school. Ralph Hackleman and Harold Bever who are in Wabash college at Crawfordsville and Laurence Payne who is in Military school at Asheville, N. C., will arrive the latter part of the week.

Kennard Allen who is in Columbia university in New York, having only a week's vacation, will spend the time with friends near there and Harold McClanahan, in Northwest-

PETTICOATS OF SHIMMERING FABRICS ARE REGULAR DREAMS

In the Bygone Days of Old Kings They Thought They Were Going Some When They Donned Suits of Gold and Silver Armour. But Fashion's Queens Have Gone a Few Steps Further Today When They Affect Lingerie D'Or and D'Argent — Entire Gowns For Evening Wear of These Metalized Fabrics Are as Beautiful as They Are Popular.

By MARGARET MASON
(Written for United Press.)

All that glitters is not gold.
Oft 'tis silver too

And each maid is metalized
Hat, gown and shoe.

New York, Dec. 16.—Clouds aren't the only things that have silver linings these days. No indeed not if you have noticed the shiny new lingerie. Made of cloth of gold and cloth of silver it is and if you own an under bodice or a combination of this precious sheen you can feel positively that you are up to the last scratch of fashion. And you probably do too. Petticoats of these shimmering fabrics are dreams of moonbeams and sunbeams elaborately incrustated with gold and silver lace as well. In days of old Kings thought there were going some when they donned suits of gold and silver armour but fashion's queens have certainly gone a few steps further today when they affect lingerie d'or and d'argent.

Entire gowns for evening wear of these precious metalized fabrics are as beautiful as they are popular and Mary Nash in "The Man Who Came Back" is showing a stunning example of a silver cloth one inset with silver lace.

Cloth of gold and cloth of silver slippers have of course become almost too common for words and are bound soon to be only worn by the poor and passe considering the constantly soaring price of calf skin.

Hats, large and cartwheelish, of gold and silver lace are much in evidence on heads that show also a suspiciously copper tint. For you really have to be on your metal these days and have the metal on you even if it means resorting to the help of henna.

Boudoir caps of gold and silver lace and gold and silver tissue also prove that not only plumbing, radiators, munitions and machines may boast metal caps.

Alas, however, they don't act quite the same way and a tired and temperamental lady may never hope to let off steam simply by doffing her boudoir cap of gold.

All gold and silver cloth evening wraps with cape collars and cuffs of fur are gorgeous enough to make King Henry the Eighth and his famous Field of the Cloth of Gold look like a piker.

Fairy fans of gold and silver gauze and silver cobweb lace flutter and twinkle under the artificial lights like so many silvery dew drops or golden fireflies.

One particularly bright, shining and novel fan I discovered in an artistic new shop the other day. It is of humble paper origin but all beautifully covered with gold leaf, sticks and all. A Chinese hieroglyphic done in a bright blue, green and purple breaks the monotony of its folds and dangling from its sticks is a silken cord of matching color gay with beads and finished with a festive Chinese tassel or a handy finger ring of jade wherewith to anchor its fluttering beauty ready to its fair owners hand.

The new oriental Medieval and Byzantine tea gowns and negligees that now have such a royal vogue are of course replete with gold and silver tissues, laces and galloons.

Because of these present precious fabrics, these many metalized modes, divers are the poor swains who go questing the golden girl a la Richard Le Gallienne who are bound to be stung. They will find seeming golden girls on ever hand and silver queens as well. But let them beware and remember that a gold wash and a silver plate has a time limit of wear. In the majority of cases the twenty two carat finish is only gown and lingerie deep, the golden or the copper tress has a henna or peroxide base and base deceit it is. Let the wary wooer be not dazzled by the outer shell but let him first test his precious pet in the crucible of love and find if her heart be of gold as well and if she has a sterling character

Many Events Make Christmas Most Festive Season of Year

Christmas vacation is hardly to be a vacation in one sense of the word, if by it you mean what Webster does, "a period of leisure," for every crowd and click is busy already planning for the annual Christmas party and finding a date for it, which now is a difficult task indeed. The college folks and home-comers, that make this one time of the year more pleasant by being here, have added a stimulus to the plans for dances, parties, banquets, in fact, everything that will give an excuse for a pleasant "get together." All of the plans are not definite, but at that they promise a good time.

Only a few of the crowds will brave the Christmas rush of those last few days for a party. The members of the Tri Kappa sorority will have their holiday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Harold in North Perkins street on Thursday evening preceding Christmas. Following the pitch-in supper, to be given by one division of the sorority, there will be an exchange of gifts. On Thursday evening too, the Pollyanna class of the St. Paul's M. E. Sunday School will have a pitch-in supper. Each member of the class will invite one friend to participate in the party.

Christmas day itself of course has a larger line than ever of family dinners. Too, there will be an all day dance at the Phi Delta Kappa hall, with a six piece orchestra from Connersville playing both afternoon and evening. The members of the Cross Country Club are planning to observe their annual custom with a pitch-in dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Newhouse Christmas evening.

Some time during the week and probably Tuesday, the members of the "500" Club will have their Christmas party with an exchange of gifts at their regular meeting. Mrs. Walter Easley will have the meeting. On Wednesday evening, will be the formal dance at the Social Club. This Christmas dance will be similar to the Thanksgiving one which was such a marked success. An Indianapolis orchestra is to play.

The members of the Psi Iota Xi sorority had planned to have their anniversary banquet on Thursday evening. The event will mark the anniversary of the founding of the chapter. On Thursday, too, one of the most auspicious events in the history of Kappa Alpha Phi will be staged in the Riley room at the Claypool Hotel in Indianapolis in the form of a dance for the entire membership of the fraternity. A number of the local Kappas and their lady friends will go from here.

On Friday evening, the members of the R. C. S. Club will have their annual Christmas party.

The same evening, Miss Gladys Behout and Miss Beatrice Reeves will give a dinner party at the home of Miss Reeves in North Main street for a number of their girl friends including several that will return from school.

Tuesday evening, the house-guests of Miss Leah Flint will be guests of honor at the dinner party to be given by Miss Flint at her home in North Perkins street for a number of her boy and girl friends.

No Christmas Is Complete Without Some of the Old-Fashioned Candy

No matter how many new fashioned and elaborate boxes of candy one receives at Christmas, the day just isn't complete without some of the home-made candy. Several kinds can be made in advance of these last few days of rushing. Fondant is really better to be made several days or a week ahead. It can be made into the fancy little molds and mixed with nuts and fruits later. Some of the most popular candies and those which are not complicated to make follow:

Pineapple Divinity Fudge.

- 2 cupsful sugar.
- 1/2 cupful corn syrup.
- 1/2 cupful water.
- 2 eggs.
- 1 teaspoonful cream of tartar.
- 1/2 cupful candied pineapple.
- 1/2 cupful nut meats.

Put all the ingredients into a saucepan except the pineapple, nuts and eggs, and boil to the firm ball stage or to 250 degrees by the candy thermometer. Add the vanilla or any desired extract and pour over the beaten whites of the eggs. Beat until it begins to stiffen, stir in the pineapple and nuts chopped very fine. Pour into pans and cut into squares.

Maple Marshmallow Foam.

- 2 cupsful maple sugar.
- 1 cupful brown sugar.
- 1 teaspoonful cream of tartar.
- 1 dozen marshmallows.
- 1/2 cupful of water.
- 1/3 cupful shelled walnuts.
- 2 eggs.

"Foam" candies are popular and this one is no exception. Boil sugars, water and cream of tartar until the mixture will make a firm ball when tested in water, then add the marshmallows, cut into small pieces. Cover and let stand on the back of the stove for five minutes. Pour over the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs. Beat until light, drop from a spoon onto a buttered paper and place a half walnut on top of each.

Fruit and Nut Loaf.

Softening one pound of fondant, and work in one-fourth pound figs, one-fourth cupful of raisins, one-fourth cupful candied cherries, one slice of candied pineapple—all cut in small pieces—and one-half cupful chopped nuts. Place in oblong pan. When cold and firm, cut in small pieces.

Sea Foam With Nuts

Boil one cupful sugar and one-half cupful water until it threads. Beat whites of two egg very stiff. Put in dry pan and add boiled mixture very slowly, beating well with paddle or spoon until ingredients become stiff. Add one-half cupful broken English walnuts, then drop in little mounds on waxed paper.

Pop Corn Fudge.

- 2 cupsful sugar.
 - 2 tablespoonsful butter.
 - 1 cupful popcorn.
 - 1/2 cupful peanuts.
 - 1 cupful milk.
 - 1/2 teaspoonful salt.
 - 1/2 teaspoonful almond extract.
- Boil the sugar, milk, butter and salt to the soft ball stage. Flavor with the almond extract. Stir in the popcorn and nuts that have been run through a food chopper or chopped fine. Stir until creamy, and when cool cut into squares.

Old Fashioned Taffy.

- 1 cupful sugar.
- 1/2 cupful butter.
- 1/3 cupful brown sugar.
- 1 cupful molasses.
- 1/2 cupful milk.
- 1 tablespoon vanilla.
- Pinch of salt.
- 1 teaspoonful vinegar.

A favorite addition to the many Christmas sweets is taffy. Mix the sugar, salt, butter and milk and molasses; boil until mixture will form a hard ball when tested in cold water. Add the vanilla and vinegar, pour into pan and mark into squares.

Maple Delight.

- 1 cupful maple sugar.
- 1 cupful light brown sugar.
- 1/2 cupful corn syrup.
- 1 teaspoonful vanilla.
- 1/2 cupful water.
- 1/2 cupful chopped raisins.
- 1/2 cupful walnut meats.
- 2 eggs.
- 1 teaspoon cream of tartar.

Maple sugar furnishes the "different" note. Place the sugars, water, syrup and cream of tartar in a saucepan and boil for a few minutes. Add the raisins chopped fine, and the chopped nut meats. Boil until it will ball in water, flavor with vanilla, and pour over the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs. Beat light and foamy, then drop from a spoon onto wax paper, and place a raisin on the top of each. They are also nice dipped in melted chocolate when cool.

ern Music School at Evanston, may stop off on his way to Galveston, Texas, where he will visit during the holidays.

Robert Helm returns from Miami university at Oxford on Thursday. The Earlham students return on Friday. They include Helen Norris, Russel Tittsworth, and Donald Winslow. Cullen Sexton who is attending Cincinnati university will return the latter part of the week to spend vacation, and so will James E. Watson, who is attending Military School in West Virginia.

Monday Circle, luncheon and lecture by Mrs. Demarehus Brown at home of Mrs. James E. Watson at 805 North Main street.

Busy Bunch pitch-in supper, with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stewart at 1131 North Main street.

Even though they have just moved into their new home west of Arlington and yesterday was Mrs. Woods birthday, it was quite a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Reeves Woods last evening when a number of their friends came in upon them bringing their supper as a part of the complete surprise on the young couple. An elegant supper was served, following which the guests had several rounds of Rook. In the party arranging this delightful affair were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Leisure, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morelock, M. and Mrs. James Alsmen, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Alsmen, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Woods, Miss Mary Woods, all of Arlington and Walter E. Smith of this city. Mrs. Woods was formerly Miss Mary Smith of this city.

Victory and defeat were forgotten last evening, when following the basketball game Miss Kate Dennis, head of the domestic science department, and the domestic science class gave a rabbit supper for the Rushville and Milroy teams. The affair was in the nature of a surprise, to return somewhat the courtesy extended the local team which was honored with an oyster supper following the basketball game at Milroy several weeks ago.

For the affair, one of the class rooms was arranged in a very homelike fashion with rugs, decorations and furniture. The five tables were decorated with Christmas trees, over which was a canopy of red and black crepe paper, the high school colors, extending from the chandeliers to the corners of the room. Along with the rabbit were a number of other dishes making an elegant supper for the players. The meal was prettily served by the girls in the department. "Cabaret"

A "Help-Your-Neighbor" Lady.

Of course you know her! Everybody knows Rose Tapley—and consequently everybody loves Rose Tapley. You couldn't do the one thing without doing the other. Somehow she demands that you love her. At any rate you wouldn't be a movie girl if you failed.

Of all the unselfish people in the world there never was anybody more so than Miss Tapley. Ever ready with a helping hand she makes her dressingroom the favorite refuge of every discouraged person about the studios. It is a haven from the hurly-burly.

And let me whisper something to you—not only is she a 'delightful screen personage, but she is a decidedly clever writer as well. Her writings, however, are always about someone else. Never herself.

Her creed reads something like this:—

"Never refuse a helping hand. Join the Help-Your-Neighbor Band. You'll never regret any kindness you do, Strive that your life every day may be true."

music was furnished by the ukelele chorus consisting of Wilbur Cox, William Sexton, Dwight VanOsdol, Harry Schmalzel, and Ed Meredith, the latter playing the mandolin. To their accompaniment songs were sung by Miss Louise Poe, Miss Mary Louise Bliss and Miss Kathryn Giffin. One number was played and sung by Harry Schmalzel, accompanied by C. E. Parke.

roles in the pictures, Miss Tapley has won scores of friends for herself, and her name outside the theatre assures the exhibitors a "full house."

An unlimited supply of tact and diplomacy is hard to master. But never does she fail to carry over a strained situation, and her advice has helped hundreds of girls find happiness in their own lives instead of a doubtful career on the screen.

Although yet a young woman, Miss Tapley, which names she clings to in her screen career, is an ideal mother to her younger friends. Perhaps this is because she is the real mother of a lovely little girl, Rosemary.

For weeks Miss Tapley reported for work at the studios under the care of a trained nurse. Wasn't that plucky of her? When she should really have been away in the mountains taking a rest on account of the condition of her nerves she insisted upon continuing with her duties. That, perhaps, tells you her stamp better than most things could. So when you see her on the screen remember that she is every bit as charming in real life as she appears in the play.

The thirty-one guests included the first and second teams of Milroy, the first and second teams of Rushville, and the coaches and referee.

"THE WHOLE TRUTH"

Says Mrs. Eads, in Writing Her Praise For Cardui.

Circleville, Ohio.—"All I have said about Cardui, the woman's tonic, is the whole truth," says Mrs. Fannie Eads, of R. F. D. No. 6, this town. "I suffered with womanly weakness, and pains in my back and limbs for two long years. I was so bad off, I could hardly walk at all. My husband advised me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I concluded to follow his advice. After taking Cardui according to directions, I now feel like a new woman, and can do all of my work. Before taking Cardui, I was a walking skeleton; now I weigh 150 pounds. I recommend Cardui to every suffering woman, for I know what it did for me. My dresser is never without a bottle of Cardui on it." There is no reason why Cardui won't help you, just as it has Mrs. Eads, as well as hundreds of thousands of other women in the past 50 years. So if you suffer from any of the many ailments so common to women, or need a good strengthening tonic for that tired, nervous, worn-out feeling, get a bottle of Cardui today. At all druggists. NCB1

Christmas Gifts

Christmas Shopping is at Its Height at Mauzy's

Walk back and forth through our spacious aisles on all three floors and see the many, many attractive offerings in the way of suggestions for your Christmas giving. Qualities are uniformly good and the assortments are so extensive as to preclude any doubt of your being able to make wise selections. For men, women or children there is a wonderful variety of gift things, and it will be worth your while to spend many hours here.

Ravenware

The new black glass is here in a variety of shapes for different uses. Especially attractive are the Japanese gardens for the center of the dining table.

Fountain Pens

We feature the Moore's Non-Leakable for men, women and children. They are superior to many pens on the market. Some are self-fillers.

The Gift Shop

This is to be found just as you enter the store. So many beautiful gifts are here in silver, glass, brass, leather, nickel, copper and fancy woods. If you wish something different visit this shop.

Linens

Mauzy's linens are famous through this section. Splendid in texture, exquisite in patterns, and moderate in price, they will make excellent gifts. Cloths and napkins to match for both round and square table; luncheon sets; beautiful towels.

Furs

No gift would be more appreciated. We are showing many beautiful scarfs, and separate muffs and scarfs. Annis furs have no peers.

Boudoir Slippers

Pretty shades are combined in these slippers to match the bath robes which we are showing. Many different styles. House slippers for men and children, too.

Sweaters

Good to look at, snug and warm, thoroughly practical, they make splendid gifts. We have them for women, girls and babies.

Silk Hose

Gordon Hose are again one of the best attractions this Christmas. In spite of the shortage, we have a good line of colors.

French Ivory

These "easy to keep clean" toilet articles are here in hundreds of different shapes. We know of nothing that is more acceptable to the young miss or the mature matron.

Knit Sets

These consist of scarf and cap for both ladies and girls in beautiful shades of rose, kelly green and open. Tiger plush sets at $1.00 and $2.00.

Rugs

A small Wilton Rug in some of the new Oriental shadings can not but please the wife, if the husband will do the choosing. The assortment is very large.

Toys

Toyland is aglow with everything that appeals to virile boys and girls. Spend an hour in this section.

STORE OPEN NIGHTS ALL NEXT WEEK

THE MAUZY CO.

The Rev. G. F. Powers, pastor of the Fairview Christian church, and his congregation attended the revival services at the M. E. church at Falmouth, last Sunday night.

John Nelson of Hawkinsville was in Fairview on business Monday.

Miss Ruth Vandiver of Elwood, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Collier and family and other relatives, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Gibbs Tuesday and Wednesday.

Arlington

Protracted meetings still continue in progress at the M. E. church.

John Patton has moved into the property he purchased recently of Mr. Massey.

Mrs. J. R. Gilson, Mrs. P. D. Collins, Mrs. William Gowdy and Mrs. William Anderson are numbered among the sick in Arlington.

Mrs. D. M. Baldridge spent Tuesday in Indianapolis.

William Gowdy and Oral Adams transacted business in Indianapolis Tuesday.

Mrs. A. G. Shanek spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cassidy and family and attended a parvee post social at Homer.

H. B. Gardner and family and Oral Adams and family visited Mr. and Mrs. James Posey Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Warfield and family moved to Connersville Tuesday.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ESTATE.

Notice is hereby given to the creditors, heirs and legatees of Elizabeth Quenzer, deceased, to appear in the Rush circuit court, held at Rushville, Indiana, on the 18th day of December, 1916, and show cause, if any, why Final Settlement Accounts with the estate of said decedent should not be approved; and said heirs are notified to then and there make proof of heirship and receive their distributive shares.

Witness, the Clerk of said Court, this 24th day of November, 1916.
